

I am not in favor of changing (weekening) the Indiana "no call telephone list". I do not want to be called with any sales pitch of any kind (especially financial institutions). If a business etc. wants to contact me, they can send me a letter via US Mail. In this way if something is suspicious I can have the Post Master check it out.